yet away from the pr, on the front lines, battles are being lost but that isn’t enough for them irsquo;d gotten in trouble at school that daymdash;againmdash;and principal horton had stopped by to tell her about my latest screw up acid rising from the stomach and irritating the lower esophageal sphincter (les), the valve that separates the esophagus from the stomach, results in the feeling of what is commonly called heartburn.